

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL WIFES FORUM

April 12, 1960

Dear Congressional Wife:

The Forum will meet on Wednesday, April 27, at the Women's National Democratic Club. The meeting is scheduled for 11 o'clock and luncheon at 12:30, ($2.50).

We will have a fascinating talk and discussion on the tactics the opposition party will be using against us this fall.

We have a campaign song written and sponsored by our Congressional Wives Forum which we will "Sneak Preview" on that day.

We understand that the Easter Recess will make it very difficult for you to give us a positive reponse on this meeting; however, please return your card with a Yes or No. If there are any later changes in your plans let Mrs. Gale McGee know by a call or card -- 7205 Marbury Road, Washington, D. C., OL 4-3216. Our response date to the Club is Monday, April 25.

Everyone is still buzzing with the impact of our exciting March meeting. Let's make this as much fun.

Hoping to see you on the 27th, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Eleanor McGovern
Corresponding Secretary
